ABSTRACT

The abstract should be one paragraph long, summarizing the article's main points in 200-400 words. To ensure that your entire paper is correctly indexed in the conference database, the book of abstracts, and the e-proceedings, we strongly recommend updating your full paper title, abstract, and author information in Microsoft's CMT system to match the information of this full paper. Do not include graphs, symbols, or equations in the abstract. Abstract should be typed in Times New Roman 11-point font, justified with a first-line indent in single-line spacing, on A4-sized paper (21.0 × 29.7 cm, portrait format), and must fit within a box measuring 16.5 cm in width by 24.1 cm in height. Please center the "abstract" title on top of this paragraph (in Times New Roman, 14-point font, using capitals).

Keywords: keyword1, keyword2, keyword3, keyword4, keyword5

INTRODUCTION

The introduction should consist of three sections: (1) background information about the work, (2) the reasoning behind your decision to conduct this research, and (3) a clear statement of the project's objectives. These sections should be formatted in Times New Roman, 11-point font, justified, with first-line indent, in single-line spacing.

This document serves as a template for preparing the full paper for ACA 2026, which will be held in Taipei, Taiwan, from November 5-8, 2026. The full paper should be 4 to 6 pages long, including figures, tables, and references. It must be written in English and saved as "ACA2026_Paper ID.". Please submit the full paper in both MS Word and PDF formats to the following link:

<https://cmt3.research.microsoft.com/ACA2026/Submission/Index>.

The deadline for full paper submission is September 15, 2026. To have a paper included in the conference proceedings and be eligible for publication, at least one author of each accepted paper must register and pay the early bird registration fee before the full paper submission deadline. If multiple papers are accepted, a separate registration fee is required for each paper. However, if you are the sole author of two papers, only one registration fee is required to cover both.

METHODOLOGY

Your research methodology should detail all the materials, equipment, and procedures utilized, including statistics (if any). Please describe your experiment in a logical order. This section should be formatted as follows:

- Text: Times New Roman, 11-point font, justified, with a first-line indent, and single-line spacing.
- Equations: Enclosed in parentheses and numbers on the right side. Equations placed on a separate line should be centered as follows:

$$x = \frac{-b \pm \sqrt{b^2 - 4ac}}{2a} \quad (1)$$

Any numbered equations must be cited in text as, i.e., (Eq. 1), see Eq. (2), etc.

RESULTS AND DISCUSSION

This part generally consists of the results and the discussion. The research findings should be described in the first section of the results, along with the methodology, including original Figures and Tables. If modified Figure and Tables are displayed, proper references must also be provided. The rationale of the findings is covered in the second section of the discussion, along with how closely the findings align with or differ from previously published works.

Text, Figures and Tables

- Text: Times New Roman, 11-point font, justified, with first-line indent, in single-line spacing.
- Figures and Tables: Figures and tables should be numbered and captioned. They should be displayed in color with a minimum resolution of 300 dpi. Use large enough lettering so that the smallest elements (i.e., superscript or subscript characters) will be readable when figures are reduced. Figures and tables should be centered.

Table 1: Instruction of text format

Text item	Description	Example
Title	14 pt, centered, bold, APA title case	Color Research in 2026
Author name	12 pt, centered, regular	Lisa White, and Mark Black
Affiliation	12 pt, centered, italic	ACA University
Keyword	11 pt, left-aligned, italic, lowercase	color harmony, image quality
Heading	12 pt, centered, bold, all capitals	INTRODUCTION
Body text	11 pt, justified, first-line indent, regular, single-line spacing	The three attributes of color vision are lightness, chroma, and hue.
Table cation	11 pt, centered, bold	Table 1: Text format

CONCLUSION

Bring all your findings together to a conclusion, especially when your results and the subsequent discussion have been complicated. Please avoid repeating what you have written in the discussion. This part should be in the following format: Times New Roman, 11-point font, justified, a first-line indent, in single-line spacing.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Acknowledgments section, though optional, provides an opportunity to express sincere gratitude to individuals or organizations that have made significant contributions to the completion of this paper. Text (Times New Roman, 11-point font, justified alignment, a first-line indent, in single-line spacing).

REFERENCES

When citing references in the text, indicate the corresponding reference number in square brackets, as shown at the end of this sentence [1]. Full references should be cited in a numbered list at the end of the manuscript. References should be written in APA style, as demonstrated in the reference section below. Reference list should contain the following elements: Author's surname, Initials. (Year of publication – in brackets) Title of article. Title of journal - in italics. Volume number.
